- Prairie Capital Corvair Association (PCCA), hereafter also referred to as the “Club”.
- The club is affiliated with the Corvair Society of America (CORSAs), .

SECTION 2: PURPOSE

- Maintaining and promoting the Chevrolet Corvair and the close bonds of member friendship through Club sponsored activities.
- The Club shall encourage individual membership in CORSA and participation in CORSA events.

SECTION 3: MEETINGS

General Membership Meetings:

- Meetings shall be held every other month at a designated location, date and time as set by the board and published in the Club newsletter. The December get-together is an additional gathering date.
 - Robert’s Rules Of Order shall apply at all General Membership Meetings.
 - Issues to be decided at the General Membership Meetings, unless otherwise specified in these by-laws, shall be by a simple majority of members in good standing at the meeting.
 - Voting may be done by a show of hands, by request for “yea” or “nay”, or by roll call as determined by the club president.
 - At least five members in good standing (other than officers) must be present to conduct a meeting.
 - The president shall only vote in cases of a tie vote among members.

Board Of Director Meetings (BOARD):

- Board Meetings shall be held twice each year, ideally on the same day as the General Membership Meetings of January and July.
- Additional BOARD meetings may be called by the Club President.
- Any situation thought to require a BOARD meeting may be brought to the President’s or a BOARD member’s attention by any Club member in good standing. (see membership)
- Meetings require a quorum of the three (3) at-large BOARD members. (Refer to Article IV.2 regarding BOARD members)

Committee Meetings:

- Committees formed within the Club shall meet as often as they deem necessary, at a time and location they select. Committees must notify the president of meetings.

PRAIRIE CAPITAL CORVAIR ASSOCIATION BY-LAWS

SECTION 2: TYPES OF MEMBERSHIPS and DUES

The membership year shall begin January 1 and end December 31

Family Membership:

- Shall include both members of a couple who live at the same address. Both members may vote on Club issues and hold Club office. Single Membership:
- May be granted to anyone who is sixteen (16) years or older who has no other family or does not wish to include family in his/her membership. Dues:
- The annual dues amounts for the next membership year shall be set by the BOARD at its January meeting so that expenses are met. A single membership will always be less than a family membership.

SECTION 3: PAYMENT OF DUES

- Dues are assessed annually, payable by the first scheduled regular Club meeting each January.
- Renewal notices will be published in the Club newsletters of November and December.
- Membership dues for new members shall be paid at joining.
- New members joining January 1 through June 30 shall pay the full amount. New members joining July 1 through December 31 shall pay 50% of the annual amount.
- Dues payments may be made directly to the Club Treasurer or mailed to the Club's mailing address (Prairie Capital Corvair Assn., Box 454, Pawnee, IL., 62558.)
- Members who are renewing their memberships should make an effort to use the renewal form found in the Club newsletter or a reasonable facsimile thereof. This will help ensure accuracy of Club's records.

SECTION 4: RESIGNATION; TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- A member may resign at any time by directing a letter of resignation to the club president. Resignations shall be granted by the president providing any indebtedness to the Club has been paid. Outstanding dues must be paid prior to re-entry into the club. If a family membership is at issue, the letter must be specific as to whom the resignation shall apply.
- Failure to pay annual membership dues by the date of the March regular meeting will be considered a resignation.
- Termination of membership for any reason will result in the member(s) name(s) being removed from the Club's membership list. Those name(s) will be noted in the March Club newsletter, which will be the last newsletter received by those whose membership has terminated.
- A member may be expelled from the Club for non-payment of assessments (other than membership dues) or for conduct unbecoming to the Club as determined by the club president and approved by a majority vote of the board at any regular or special board meeting. Any member being considered for expulsion shall be notified in writing that such action is pending and given an opportunity to defend himself/herself at a date, time and location set by the board to review the issue. The discussion for expulsion must appear as an agenda item on the boards published agenda.

- When a committee's purpose has been served, the President shall abolish it as provided on Article III.2 of these by-laws.

ARTICLE VI: NOMINATIONS and ELECTIONS

SECTION 1: NOMINATIONS

Each year the President shall establish a Nominating Committee, prior to the October regular meeting, who will prepare a slate of nominees for the officer and board member positions. It is important to note that being nominated and holding any Club office or BOARD position is voluntary. The slate of nominees shall be presented at the October General Membership Meeting. The slate shall be finalized as follows:

- Additional nominations may be made by Club members in good standing who are present at the October meeting.
- If there are not sufficient nominations to create a full slate, the Club President may suggest names or actively solicit members to stand for nomination. If the President's efforts fail, he/she shall call a special BOARD meeting in an attempt to resolve the situation.

SECTION 2: ELECTION NOTICE AND BALLOT DISTRIBUTION

A list of nominations will be printed in the first Club newsletter published following the above described nomination meeting. This should be the November newsletter. Regardless of the date, every attempt will be made to publish this information quickly after the slate confirmation meeting.

- Mail-in ballot(s) will be in the newsletter for each Club member eligible to vote in that election.
- Each eligible member is entitled to one vote for each officer and BOARD position.

SECTION 3: ELECTION PROCEDURE

- The Club membership may vote using one of the following methods:
 - Complete their ballots and send them via regular mail in time to arrive by the date of the election meeting.
 - Hand their ballots to the Club secretary at the afore mentioned meeting.
 - Email their ballot to the Club secretary one day prior to the election meeting.
- Following the election meeting, the Club secretary shall tabulate the ballots returned and provide the board President with the results.
- The new officers and BOARD members will be announced by the President at the next General Membership meeting.
- New Club officers and BOARD members will take office in January. A joint meeting of past and new officials shall be held just prior to the January General Membership Meeting.

ARTICLE VII: FINANCIAL MATTERS

SECTION 1: TREASURER'S RESPONSIBILITY

- The Treasurer shall be responsible for the control of Club finances. He/she shall keep receipts or cancelled checks for each expenditure.

SECTION 2: BONDING

- Bonding the Club Treasurer is optional, at the discretion of the BOARD. This is a matter of good practice rather than evidence of distrust. The BOARD alone may make this determination.

SECTION 3: FINANCIAL AUDITS

- The fiscal year for the Club shall be January 1 to December 31
- An annual audit of all financial transactions occurring during the last twelve months shall be conducted following the last calendar day of December and should be completed prior to the January General Membership Meeting or as soon as practically possible thereafter.
- The audit shall be conducted by an independent party selected by the BOARD, exclusive of Club officers and BOARD members, prior to the treasury being turned over to the newly elected Treasurer.
- Results of the audit shall be reported to the BOARD and made available to the general membership during the next regular meeting following the audit.

SECTION 4: CLUB FINANCIAL SIGNATURES

- The elected Club Treasurer shall be identified to the Club's financial institution as having the primary signatures for all financial matters.
- The President shall name, and Club members shall accept by majority vote at the meeting where the name is announced, another elected officer of the Club as having a second official signature.
- This officer will also be identified to the financial institution.
- The secondary signer may not be the spouse of the Treasurer, nor may reside at a common address with the Treasurer.

This was moved to section 4.

ARTICLE VIII: PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

SECTION 1: STATEMENT

The Prairie Capital Corvair Association, having been duly formed under the proper corporation laws of the State of Illinois, shall have no individual or organization having business with the Club hold liable any past, present, or future member or officer of the Club personally responsible for Club contracts. Assets of the Club only shall be held responsible.

ARTICLE IX: CHANGES TO BY-LAWS

SECTION 1: BI-ANNUAL REVIEW

In even numbered years a committee will be formed by the President to review these by-laws to determine whether changes may be needed. Any suggested changes shall be brought before a General Membership Meeting after notice of same is prominently noted in the Club Newsletter.

SECTION 2: AS-NEEDED CHANGES

Alterations or amendments that cannot or should not wait for the bi-annual review must be presented to the Club President in writing. As-needed changes approved shall be noted as an amendment to the by-laws, to be incorporated into the document during the next bi-annual review

The following procedures apply;

- The President will bring the suggestion before the BOARD at a regular BOARD meeting, unless a special meeting is deemed necessary by the Club President.
- In order to pass, three at-large BOARD members must approve the suggested change(s). . The Club President may only vote in order to break a tie.
- If approved the suggested change(s) proceeds to the General Membership as described in Section 3 of this article.

SECTION 3: MEMBERSHIP ADOPTION / REJECTION PROCEDURE

All proposed changes to the Club by-laws, whether a result of the bi-annual review or an as-needed proposal, will first go before the BOARD for approval. Following BOARD approval, the revision(s) will be delivered in written form to the membership. The method of delivery will include through the Club website with notification so noted in the newsletter and via email. Those members not able to access the club website may request printed copies from the Secretary.

At the next meeting of the general membership following notification;

- The Club President will conduct a general discussion on the merits of the proposed change(s), and may allow at his/her discretion minor wording additions/deletions generally agreed to by those present.
- A two-thirds (2/3) majority of members present will be required for the above proposed change(s), , to be approved.
- If a voice vote is split, the Club President may call for a show of hands or roll-call vote at his/her discretion.
- The Club President may only vote in case of a vote tie.
- By-laws not affected or altered by review and approval remain in effect.
