Notes:

Joe Casey is the former Supervisor of the legendary "Corvair Room" at the Willow Run Assembly Plant where the last hand-made 1969 Corvairs were built.

Judy Gigante is the daughter of Frank Winchell, head Chevrolet's R&D department from 1959 through 1966 whose legacy included defense of the Corvair during the various lawsuits filed against General Motors. Judy will speak for about 15 minutes and share some stories about her famous father
