The View Through the Windshield by Bob Marlow

The Corvair was in production for ten years. As of this month, NJACE has been running for 40 years!

NJACE was first organized in June, 1970, now some 40 years ago. So on Saturday, June 12th, we will commemorate the 40th anniversary of the club. To mark the occasion we will both drive our Corvairs and enjoy a unique dining experience.

We will begin by meeting in the parking lot of the Olde Mill Inn, just off I-287 in Basking Ridge. From there we will then enjoy a drive through the historic sites around Morristown, with stops at Washington's Headquarters Museum and newly refurbished Ford Mansion. We will then return to our cars to further explore the roads in and around Jockey Hollow before arriving back at the Olde Mill Inn. There we will treat ourselves to a group lunch in the Grain House Restaurant, an 18th-century building of great charm.

What better way to celebrate than to combine our own historic event with a bit of national, state, and local history? We will meet at 9:30 AM on June 12th at the parking lot of the Olde Mille Inn, Basking Ridge (www.oldmillinn.com). The Grain House is adjacent to the Olde Mill Inn, which is itself adjacent to Exit 30B of Route 287, easy to find! We will depart promptly at 10:00 AM for a casual drive.

Our drive will include a stop at Washington's Headquarters in Morristown, where we'll explore the visitor's center and the nearby Ford Mansion. (Note, the Ford Mansion is scheduled to be re-opened by this date, but there remains the possibility that it will be unavailable to us.) The caravan will then return to the Grain House for a special luncheon at 1:00 PM.

For those not able to join the caravan, you can go directly to the Grain House at 1:00 PM for the luncheon. The Grain House itself is an historic inn and the innkeeper and staff have promised us a delicious three-course luncheon in a private dining area.

The cost of the headquarters visit is about $4.00 and the meal is $33.00 per person. As we do at our monthly breakfasts, there will be a drawing for some lucky person to get their meal for free!

*We have reserved the room and will need an RSVP by June 5th:
Ken Schiffner (201-236-0786, scrubbr@ix.netcom.com) so he can provide notice of the number of guests to the Grain House.*

So, please, RSVP to Ken Schiffner right away.

Speaking if historic, as I write it is only a few days before the big VCCA car show in Franklin Lakes, and this year's inclusion of the Corvair as the show's "feature car," in recognition of the Corvair's 50th birthday, has already been a big success. As of right now, we have 30, yes, 30 Corvairs signed up for the show. With the Fitch Phoenix among them, and with Pete Koehler's Corvair Preservation Foundation display, and with our won club booth, it is a understatement to say that I am looking forward to this show.

In between the Franklin Lakes show and our 40th anniversary celebration is our regular monthly breakfast, on Saturday, June 5. Remember, these breakfasts are casual affairs – no stiff, formal meetings at all – and each month one member wins a free breakfast. It could be you!

NJACE 40th Anniversary Celebration

"Mark your calendars....NJACE is going to celebrate its 40th Anniversary on Saturday June 12th!

What better way to celebrate than to combine our own "historic" event with a bit of national and NJ history? And why not add another special memory to the long list of NJACE activities?

We will meet at 9:30 AM on June 12th at the parking lot of the Grain House Restaurant (225 Route 202 in Basking Ridge, 908-221-1100, www.oldmillinn.com). The Grain House is part of and opposite the Olde Mill Inn and is a simple exit off Route 287. We will leave promptly (underline promptly and add "sharp", "no latter than", "you snooze you lose") at 10:00 AM for a caravan past some of the "haunts" that NJACE frequented during its illustrious (no quotes needed) history. Bob Marlow will produce a collector's item handout summary of some of the notable landmarks along the route.

We'll then stop at one of New Jersey's famous historic sites....Washington's Headquarters in Morristown. We'll explore the visitor's center and, if available, the nearby Ford Mansion. The caravan will then return to the Grain House for a very special luncheon at 1:00 PM. For those not wishing to caravan, they can go directly to the Grain House for the 40th Anniversary luncheon. The Grain House itself is an historic inn and the "inn keeper" and helpers have promised us a delicious three (3) course luncheon in a cozy (need we say historic?) private dining area. The menu is listed below this article.

The cost of the headquarters visit is about $4.00 and the meal is $33.00 per person. As we do at the breakfasts, there will be a drawing for some lucky person to get their meal for free!

We have reserved the room and will need an RSVP by July 5th to Ken Schiffner (201-236-0786, scrubbr@ix.netcom.com) so he can provide advanced notice of the number of guests to the Grain House.

Afterwards, our minds filled with memories and our bellies full of good food, most will likely want to just go home...maybe take a nap. Others may want to continue the historic theme and stop at nearby Jockey Hollow.....your option.

Please RSVP ASAP to Ken Schiffner so that the Grain House can prepare for our historic day..."

NJACE Breakfast Give Away

NJACE is continuing our FREE breakfast policy, with a new wrinkle. In order to win you need to be at our monthly breakfast meeting at the Pronto Deli, but where previously we drew only one name, now we will continue to draw names until we have a winner! So, while you still have to be there to win, your chances of winning just went up!

If your name is the one we draw from our unspeakably valuable Tupperware chalice, your breakfast check will be paid for by the club. (Sorry, we aren't paying for your entire family, just you, but still it's a great deal.)

So, get out on the first Saturday of the month to the "deli" and enjoy a hearty breakfast and meeting with many NJACE members.

See you on the 5th !!!!!!!

In celebration of the 50th anniversary of the marque, Chevrolet Corvairs will be featured at the fourth annual Hemmings New England Concours d'Elegance, July 18, 2010, at the Stratton Mountain Resort in Vermont. Other featured marques at New England's favorite concours include AMC AMX, Bentley, Buick Roadmaster, Citroën, Lincoln V-12 and Indian Motorcycle.

The weekend begins on Friday, July 16, with a cruise-in at the Hemmings Motor News headquarters in Bennington, Vermont, followed by a rally through the Green Mountains. All collector cars are welcome on the mechanic-supported 45-mile tour up the famous Ethan Allen Highway to start the weekend. The rally ends at the Stratton Mountain Resort.

On Saturday, July 17, Hemmings hosts an all day open car show at Stratton, with awards ceremony in the afternoon. The Cruise-in Spectacular is open to any pre-1986 domestic or foreign car, truck or motorcycle, with the winning cars appearing in the pages of a Hemmings publication. This is annually one of the most interesting gatherings of collector cars in New England. Saturday finishes with an available formal dinner at the Lodge at Stratton, guest speaker to be determined; 2009 featured collector and NASCAR legend Don Miller.

The Concours d'Elegance is held on Sunday, July 18. The concours, an invitation-only show, begins at 10 AM and features some of the rarest, most desirable and best-restored collector cars in the country. The Concours concludes with an award ceremony at 3 PM honoring the winners, who appear in the pages of Hemmings Motor News.

Owners of Corvairs who would like to have their cars considered for judging at the concours are encouraged to contact Hemmings Associate Editor David Traver Adolphus at dadolphus@hemmings.com.
