The View Through the Windshield by Bob Marlow

The Dog Days of August are going to be the Cat's Pajamas!

We kick off the month right away, on Saturday, August 1st, with our Breakfast Meeting at the Pronto Deli on Ridgedale Avenue in Cedar Knolls. Join us for eggs, pancakes, or whatever you prefer, along with casual conversation and an informal car show/tech session/bull-throwing contest in the parking lot.

But before you go to the breakfast meeting, we have to remind you that August 1st is the last day that you can reserve a hotel room for the Corvair's 50th anniversary celebration that is taking place in Cape May on the weekend of October 2-3-4. On August 1st the special Corvair group discounted room rate will expire. If you have not yet made your room reservation for this event, do it now! Call the La Mer Beachfront Inn at 800-644-5004, and mention "Corvair."

At the breakfast meeting you can buy tickets for the "Beatlemania Again" concert that will top off our annual club picnic just one week later. NJACE has purchased a limited supply of tickets, so don't wait to secure yours. Can't make it to the breakfast meeting? Then contact Activities VP Ken Schiffner to reserve your tickets. Ken's contact information is in this and every issue of the newsletter.

An NJACE tradition extending back to 1970, our summer picnic this year takes place on Saturday, August 8th, at the home of Bill and Marguerite Cohen in Sparta. Complete picnic details appear elsewhere in this issue, including time, address, directions, and menu. If you were not around to enjoy a picnic at the Cohen's a decade or more ago, you will enjoy the bucolic setting and the accommodating hosts. Bring the family -- and bring the family to the "Beatlemania Again" show that will follow the picnic at the nearby Camp Jefferson Amphitheatre.

The organizers of the show are excited at the prospect of having our unique 60s cars at this unique 60s concert re-creation. The combined activities of the club picnic in the afternoon and the "Beatlemania Again" show in the evening will make for an enjoyable and memorable day. Don't miss out, get your tickets at the breakfast meeting or contact Ken Schiffner this week.

Looking ahead to September, as noted last month we will skip the breakfast meeting since it falls on Labor Day weekend but we have scheduled our third annual "Corvair Camping Weekend" at Ray and Kathy Coker's Pioneer Campground in LaPorte, Pennsylvania, for the weekend of September 12-13. Call the campground at 570-946-9971 to reserve your campsite. The campground has RV sites, tent sites, and rustic cabins to accommodate us, but the campground fills up fast! Call without delay.

The campground weekend is not scored as an "official" club event for our annual participation awards, but everyone who attended the previous editions had an absolute ball.

On September 16, a Wednesday, we will convene at the Mount Olive Grill for our 3rd Quarter business meeting. This will be our last opportunity to get together as a club in preparation for the 50th anniversary weekend, so please make an effort to be there and to pitch in to help with what needs to be done.

October, of course, brings the 50th anniversary weekend. As much as I love summer, this year I can't wait for October!

“BEATLEMANIA” AT 8:00 PM

Yeah, Yeah, Yeah by Ken Schiffner

After the club picnic on August 8, please join the club and travel back in time to the 1960s for Beatlemania Again! We have secured twenty-five (25) reduced rate tickets, which I will have available at the breakfast meeting on August 1st. Tickets may also be available at the gate but who knows? This show has been a sellout in prior years. Parking is limited so we plan to Come Together and haul most of us from the picnic in two 9-passenger Greenbriers. We promised the organizers that at least one early and one late will also attend... a mini Car Show!

We'll need a head count. All together Now, who is going? If you want to go, don't be A Fool On The Hill or a Nowhere Man; just Try To See It My Way and notify me by the August 1st breakfast meeting. We Can Work It Out, so please Don't Let Me Down !

A 40-Year Perspective on the Moon Landing by Bob Marlow

On July 20, 1969, I was riding shotgun in my father's 1964 Greenbrier, on the Garden State Parkway. At 4:18 PM that day, we heard on the car's radio: "Houston, Tranquility Base here. The Eagle has landed."

How big a moment was that? To this day, every time -- and I mean every time -- that I drive past the point on the highway where we were when this happened, I think of it. Every time.

Dad's been gone over ten years now. But I still have his Greenbrier. So on Monday, July 20, 2009, I drove the van to the Paul Robinson Observatory in High Bridge, New Jersey, the closet point to my home that has a celestial connotation. At 4:18 PM park visitors kindly took a photo of myself and the van parked by a sign directing visitors to the observatory.

Exactly forty years after the history-altering event, I took a little time to remember it, and to remember my father, while driving the same car in which we shared the experience of hearing men first land on the moon.

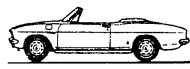

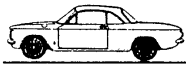

NJACE WILL BUY YOUR BREAKFAST!!!!

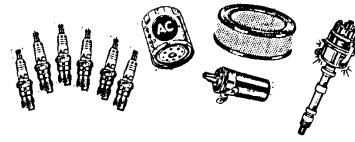

Starting with this month's breakfast meeting, one lucky member will have their breakfast check paid by the club. In an effort to boost attendance, while at the same time possibly easing in a slight way the financial pinch that most of us are feeling, a drawing will be held at each breakfast meeting. The winner of the drawing will have their breakfast check paid for by the club.

The club payment is limited to the member whose ticket is drawn, not to that member's entire family, friends, and table-mates.

This promotion will continue through 2009, so come on out to our monthly breakfasts!

Cars & Parts

My husband bought a 1966 Corvair [2 door coupe; 110. I am located in West Chester, PA] with the hopes of restoring it for me. Soon after, he got ill and passed away. Financially, I am not able to restore the car but am trying to find somebody who may be interested in purchasing the car for restoration. Although it needs body work, the engine is sound. I am not sure whether this or any other Corvair club has a way of posting cars for sale but thought maybe you include such ads in your newsletter. I can be reached at 610 -563 - 3141 or by return email. I would appreciate any help you could offer. Thank you, "Patricia Stoughton" pstoughton@philasd.org

From David Main - I'm offering (while supplies last) NOS PF4 Oil Filters @ $7.00 each. If you are interested, please let me know and I will bring your desired quantity to the August Breakfast meeting. And no, I don't want to trade, I don't want to bargain, and I don't want to hear "I'll pay you later". Cold hard cash only, and order more than one you cheapo's.

OK here's one for the Newsletter by Steve Calandra

A Corvair Club member can pop up any time any where unexpectedly. This past weekend I went on a trip to Massachusetts with my friends Carol and Jacklyn to a birthday party for Carol's 7 year old grand daughter. Friday through Sunday all was well. I didn't even have to drive. Carol drove her car both ways. Air Conditioning/Satellite Radio and On Star. (what Luxury!)

On the way back we decided to stop in Mystic Connecticut for lunch at Mystic Pizza. After waiting for a half hour for a table we almost gave up and went somewhere else. All of a sudden Jeff Dodge was walking out the door after a get together dinner with his family.

What a pleasant surprise to meet some one from so far away.

Sometimes the world is smaller than we think.
