The Museum Show—On our own!

Let me begin by disclosing a significant change in this 2025 show. As they used to say in the hills of Tennessee where I traveled, "She ain't here no more". Really, Joyce Clements has decided to enjoy the classic car scene without working herself to death. So, we now need to put together this event without Joyce. Not a peak experience....

Luckily for the Council our President, Vikki Snow, took it in her grasp and has worked REALLY HARD to pull this year's event off. I personally pledge that I'll have the largest number of Corvairs that have shown up in at least 10 years. As part of her efforts Vikki has met regularly with the City to make sure every I was doted and every T crossed in the planning. Vikki reports all is moving along nicely and will be done by the show on MAY 18. Thanks Vikki.

So take a look at the car show flyer. It has all you need to know to attend the show. I should note that the cost to enter is car, $10, has not changed in forever and is quite a bargain. Remember this event also serves as Parking if you want to shop in Old Town. As you can see, this year we are giving a special area to special low riders that want to help fill the roped off area. Our Board member, Angela Vigil has been hard at work to make sure you see some unbelievable lowriders to be displayed in the area of honor.

The Council hopes that you will join us in our inaugural car show at the Albuquerque Museum. Joyce has indicated she may attend the show. If you see her there make sure to thank Joyce for her efforts in the last 38 years! Whether this show succeeds into the future will be because of YOU. Please consider entering our show. We'll even give you a great looking dash plaque for entering. I hope to see you there. I'll be in the weird Orange Corvair truck. —Robert Gold, Editor

The readers of this newsletter should know by now that I'm a nut for Corvairs. Since we are featuring lowriders at the May 18th Museum Car Show I checked out the internet for images of low rider Corvairs. I was really surprised how many images I found. I selected this image because I have a white station wagon sorta, kinda, like this one. To be honest, mine isn't near as nice. You'll see mine at the show and you can judge for yourself.

NEXT MEETING SCHEDULED FOR APRIL 23, 2025 AT 6:30 pm. (New Time!)

DON'T FORGET!! This year's Museum Show will take place on May 18 at the Albuquerque Museum. Check out our website, nmcarcouncil.com for more info.
