Classic Cars and Lobo Football

After years of participation in car events I have come to the realization that New Mexico is very strong into classic car culture. Several years ago I took on the job of maintaining the Car Council's events calendar. Like a pot of rice that expands as it cooks, my work on the calendar took more and more effort as I found info on the many car shows taking place in our state. Take a moment to check out the calendar on our website, nmcarcouncil.com. Or you can receive your own copy of the calendar by contacting me at President@nmcarcouncil.com if you are not on our email list. With all this said I want to take this chance to document a surprising car event that took place under the lights of Lobo Field where our mighty football team plays its home games.

I hope I've gotten your attention, because I was intrigued when I was invited by Council Board member, Angela Vigil, to participate in that event at the Lobo Field. It turns out that the great minds at UNM, where I graduated, decided to use our love of cars for publicity for the upcoming football season and their recruitment of future players.

All this activity began in the Pit parking lot where a bunch of sweet rides gathered about sunset in preparation for the publicity photo shoot. We then caravanned through an entrance to the field and lined up on the sidelines. Check out the picture below to get a feeling for how things looked on the field. Nice shot??!! That little gray car near the far end among the spectacular rides, that's my 1960 Corvair almost hiding there in the shadow of those great cars.

Once our cars were in place the UNM folks then starting taking pictures of various football players in uniform posing among the cars. In addition to the photographs there were football recruits watching the festivities. I'd like to think that a future Lobo star may be among them. GO LOBOS! In too quick a time, we had time to go. The cars shined from the stadium lights as we drove off the field. I can't wait to see where the pictures turn up. Maybe you'll see our cars on a TV or in a newspaper near you!—Robert Gold, Editor

Besides collecting cars I'm a rabid collector of baseball memorabilia. Years ago I came across this ride in a baseball classified ad. It seemed to me this Toyota would be a perfect vehicle for a nut like me who is in to the sport of baseball. Alas, I'm not much of a Yankees fan (I root for the St. Louis Cardinals) so I took a pass on this purchase. I do wonder how long this beauty would take to get a reliever from the bullpen to the mound? For sure it is pretty cool.

NEXT MEETING SCHEDULED FOR JULY 22, 2026 AT 6:30 pm.

DON'T FORGET!! The next Council event will be the Collector Car Appreciation Day, July 26, 2026. Questions? Contact- Joel- Jomomma40@icloud.com, Vikki- vikkiridgley@msn.com
