Stephen's Picnic Sept. 12, 2009

Hi,
 Everyone from the Western Pennsylvania Corvair Club is invited to a picnic at my house on 221 Green Manor Drive, Butler, PA 16002. It will take place on Saturday, September 12, 2009 at 2:00 pm till ?

I will be supplying hot dogs, hamburgers with buns and drinks. All you need bring is a side dish and chair. If attending, please contact me by September 10, 2009. My phone number is 724-284-3721.

I look forward to seeing you all,

Stephen Puskas

July 28, 2009 Meeting Minutes

Officers Present:

Jim Steigerwaldt, President
Don Cekus, Vice President
Pat Greenwald, Secretary

Board Members Present:

Tim Desmond
Al Friend
John Gundlach
Jim Madden
Bob Hieber
Steve Puskas
Jack Bachman
Charles Lucas, newsletter editor

The meeting was called to order by President Jim Steigerwaldt.

The minutes of the May meeting were approved as printed in the newsletter. There was no treasurer's report.

Jim welcomed back members Bill Artzberger and Emerick Buccigrossi, and welcomed new member Greg Wilson.

Tim Desmond reviewed details of the August 1st Blueberry Cruise. Meet at the Krispy Kreme in Cranberry at 8:30. Bring a cooler and a hat. Lunch is planned at the Wooden Nickel, a buffalo farm.

Don Cekus and Al Friend related stories about the trip to Florida for the CORSA convention. The event was well attended with many nice cars. Don's 1965 red convertible took one of the top three awards in People's Choice category. Eleven WPCC people made it to Florida to enjoy the Sun & Fun in the Sunshine State.

Jim Heatherington reported on the Mountain Playhouse event. The play this year was one of the best we've seen there.

Jim also encouraged attendance at the Victory Hill Car Show on August 29th. It is a very nice facility and makes for an enjoyable afternoon.

The Gundlachs attended Old Fashioned Days at Idlewild. The Monday crowd was small this year.

Don Baker reported on the Beaver Run event in June. The Yenko Stingers running there did very well. A Stinger also ran in the Vintage Grand Prix. The No. 43 Stinger, once owned by TV's Tim Taylor, is now owned by a local man and is being worked on by John Sweet.

John Gundlach could find no recent information about the Cruising Knights, the group that usually puts on the car show at the Saxonburg Festival. The festival and our club picnic are still on for Saturday, September 12th. Bring your favorite covered dish to Steve Puskas's new house starting at 2:00.

Charles Lucas e-mailed Bill Young concerning the Geneva on the Lake event scheduled for the third week in August, but has not yet heard from him. Luke will send post cards and e-mails when he gets details.

Don Cekus is still hoping to put together the Lancaster trip. He will probably move it to late September or early October.

Jack Bachman inquired about the status of the club business cards. Printing was delayed pending a decision concerning the meeting places. It was decided that meeting locations would not be put on the cards. Luke will proceed with the printing.

Bill Artzberger brought the old club banner to the meeting. He also had club journals and CORSA Communiques dating back decades. He suggested that the Communiques could be sold with proceeds going to the club. The president took possession of the magazines and Luke gratefully accepted the journals.

Les Walter spoke about the September 13th Frick Museum Rally. It starts at Park and ends at the museum.

The president announced that he would not be attending the September 22nd meeting at the North Park Lounge.

JCPENNEY AD

Did you see this photo that was part of an ad in a JCPenney Sunday supplement to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette (and maybe the Pittsburgh Tribune Review as well) on Sunday, August 16, 2009? Did you notice the Corvairst, or weren't you paying close attention. I couldn't believe my eyes. I did a double take when I saw the front end of a 1960 Corvairst. I think it's pretty neat that they chose a Corvairst for the photo.

Corvairs Invited to Model A Club's Gettysburg Meet — September 25, 26 and 27

The 3-River Region Model A Club is planning a 3-day trip to Gettysburg for Friday, Sept. 25 thru Sunday, Sept. 27 and there are still rooms available. (This is the club we usually accompany to Jennerstown Playhouse.) Keith & Eleanor Waltower are the trip leaders and have blocked 15 rooms at the Days Inn at a price of $89 per night with breakfast included. On Friday afternoon, we have two antique tour busses reserved for a tour of the battlefield. Saturday, we will go to the new History Museum. This will occupy us until the early afternoon, then we'll go on a short visit to the Eisenhower home before dinner. On Sunday we will have a leisurely trip home. Those who have been on this trip before will be interested to know that this is also the Antique Dealers Weekend and the town will have many tempting sidewalk sales!

Submitted by Jim Heatherington

Call the Waltowers for meeting/departure information and to reserve your room.
